

World Enduro Championship 2007, Canadian Grand Prix

Great results for the Metzeler riders.

Metzeler 6 Days Extreme confirms its superiority.

Perry Sound, Canada. The sixth event of the World Enduro Championship took place in Canada, with conditions similar to Finland over 65 km of forest, sand and rocks.

The winner of both days in the E1 class was the excellent Juha Salminen, with the same kind of dominance and skill that has making him won every race so far this season.

The fights in the E2 class were really tough. While Saturday Samuli Aro took the victory, he had to leave on Sunday the first place to his strongest competitor Mika Ahola.

For Ivan Cervantes it has been the perfect weekend with two victories. Instead Marko Tarkkala lost important points as he had to retire with a damaged machine.

Now everybody is looking forward for the penultimate race of the season, the GRAND PRIX OF SLOVAKIA September the 1st and 2nd in Krompachy.
