

World Enduro Championship 2007, US Grand Prix

Excellent start for Metzeler pilots at the North American Round.

Metzeler pilots took all first places.

Hancock, New York State, USA. The first day of the fifth event of the GRAND PRIX APRILIA of the United States ran perfectly, benefiting from idyllic weather conditions. The climbing and stony Extreme Test traced in a torrent, appeared like the most spectacular and also the most delicate since the beginning of season. On this stony and technical track, the 69 starters really suffered physically. The winners of the day are Juha Salminen, Mika Ahola and Marko Tarkkala all on Metzeler 6Days Extreme.

And also the second day was dominated by Metzeler riders. In E1 Juha Salminen maintained his perfect scorecard. Mika Ahola was adding important points to keep his E2 competitors in distance. Ivan Cervantes, after a disappointing Saturday, took revenge. Now he and Marko Tarkkala have both 230 championship points and are sharing the top of the table.

The WEC family already took the road in direction of the second stage of the North American round, the GRAND PRIX ACERBIS OF CANADA, next weekend in Parry Sound.
